

Striking, isn't it? With those chocolate notes giving way to red fruit, cedar, graphite and lastly cinnamon...

Aromas of strawberry and cherry come to the fore. It starts out clean and sumptuous on the palate! And those smooth, silky, precise notes culminate in a salty finish with floral nuances (violet)... Can you sense that mineral tension, that polished tannic texture?

Bud break began in late March. The dry spring with warm spells prompted flowering and then véraison in early July. The summer rains encouraged slow ripening, before the harvest took place from the 12th of September to the 3rd of October.
